

Cast & Creative Team

Hobnob Zain Ahmad
Eyelet Rachel Clements
Humph and Shoemaker Alex Robins

Writer Paddleboat Theatre
Revival Director Jacob Blackburn
Dramaturg Sam Parker
Music Paddleboat Theatre and Andy Armfield
Set & Costume Designer Charlie Cridland
Lighting Designer and Production Manager Sam Jones
Producer Cait Laws
Set Builder Jolyon Oliver
Costume Maker Pat Farmer
Costume Supervisor Technical Stage Jess Crocker
Manager Christie Cheng

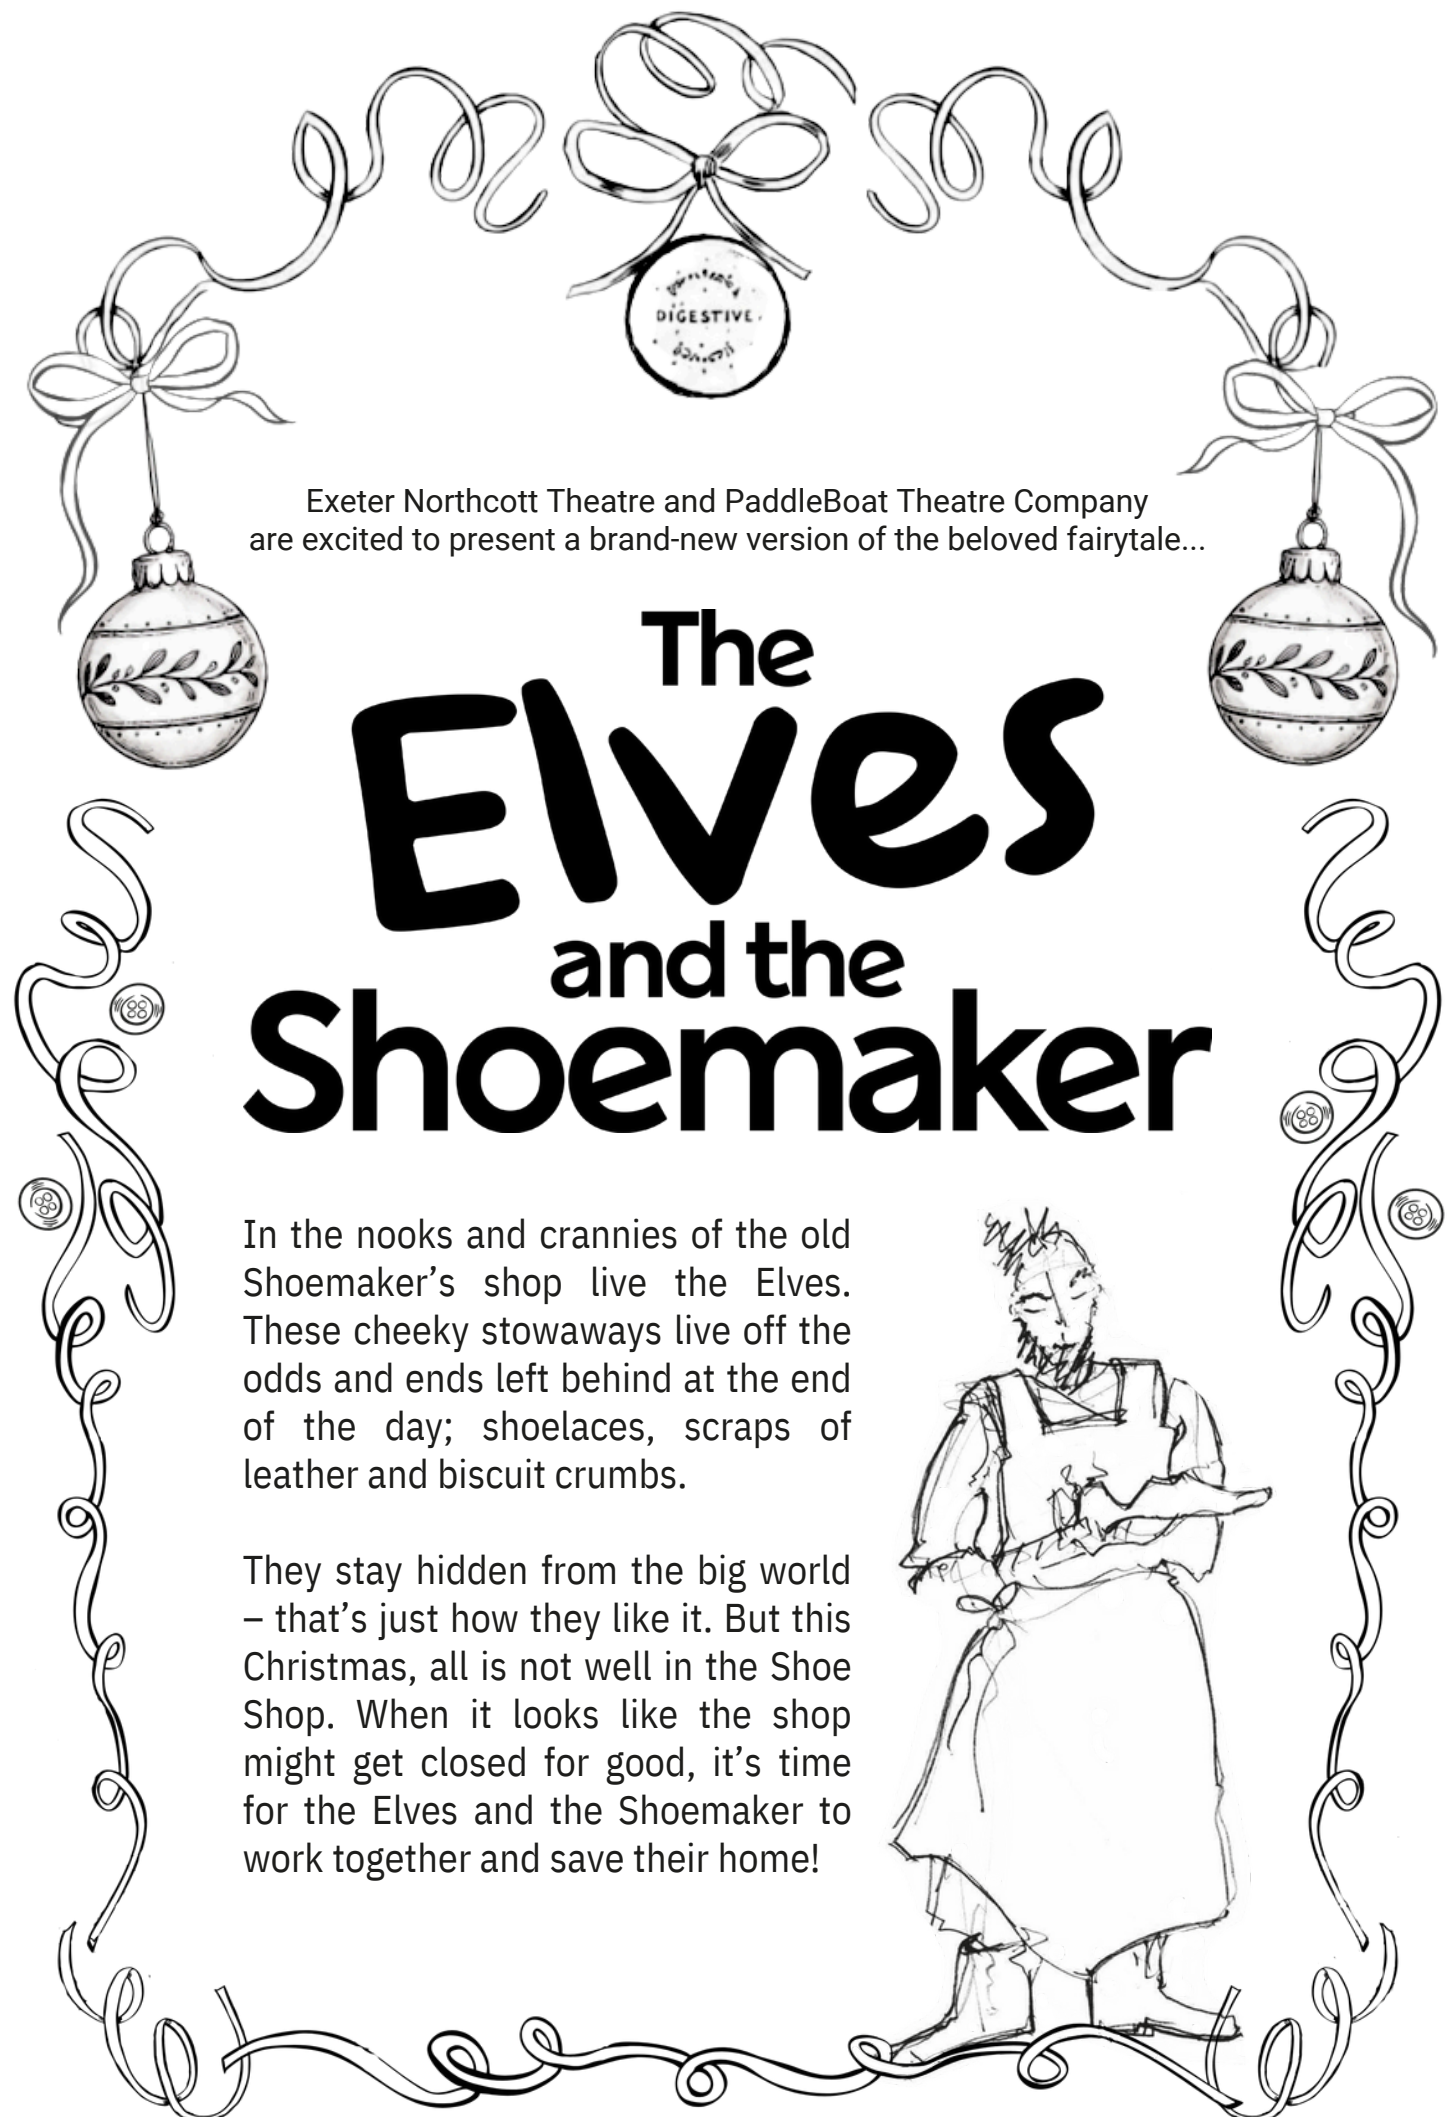

With special thanks to:

Chuckle Shoes, Ceri Dash, ProTours Theatre and Carreducker Shoes.

Add some colour to the elves!

Original costume illustrations by Charlie Cridlan, Designer. Activity sheet design by Eleanor Fitzpatrick.

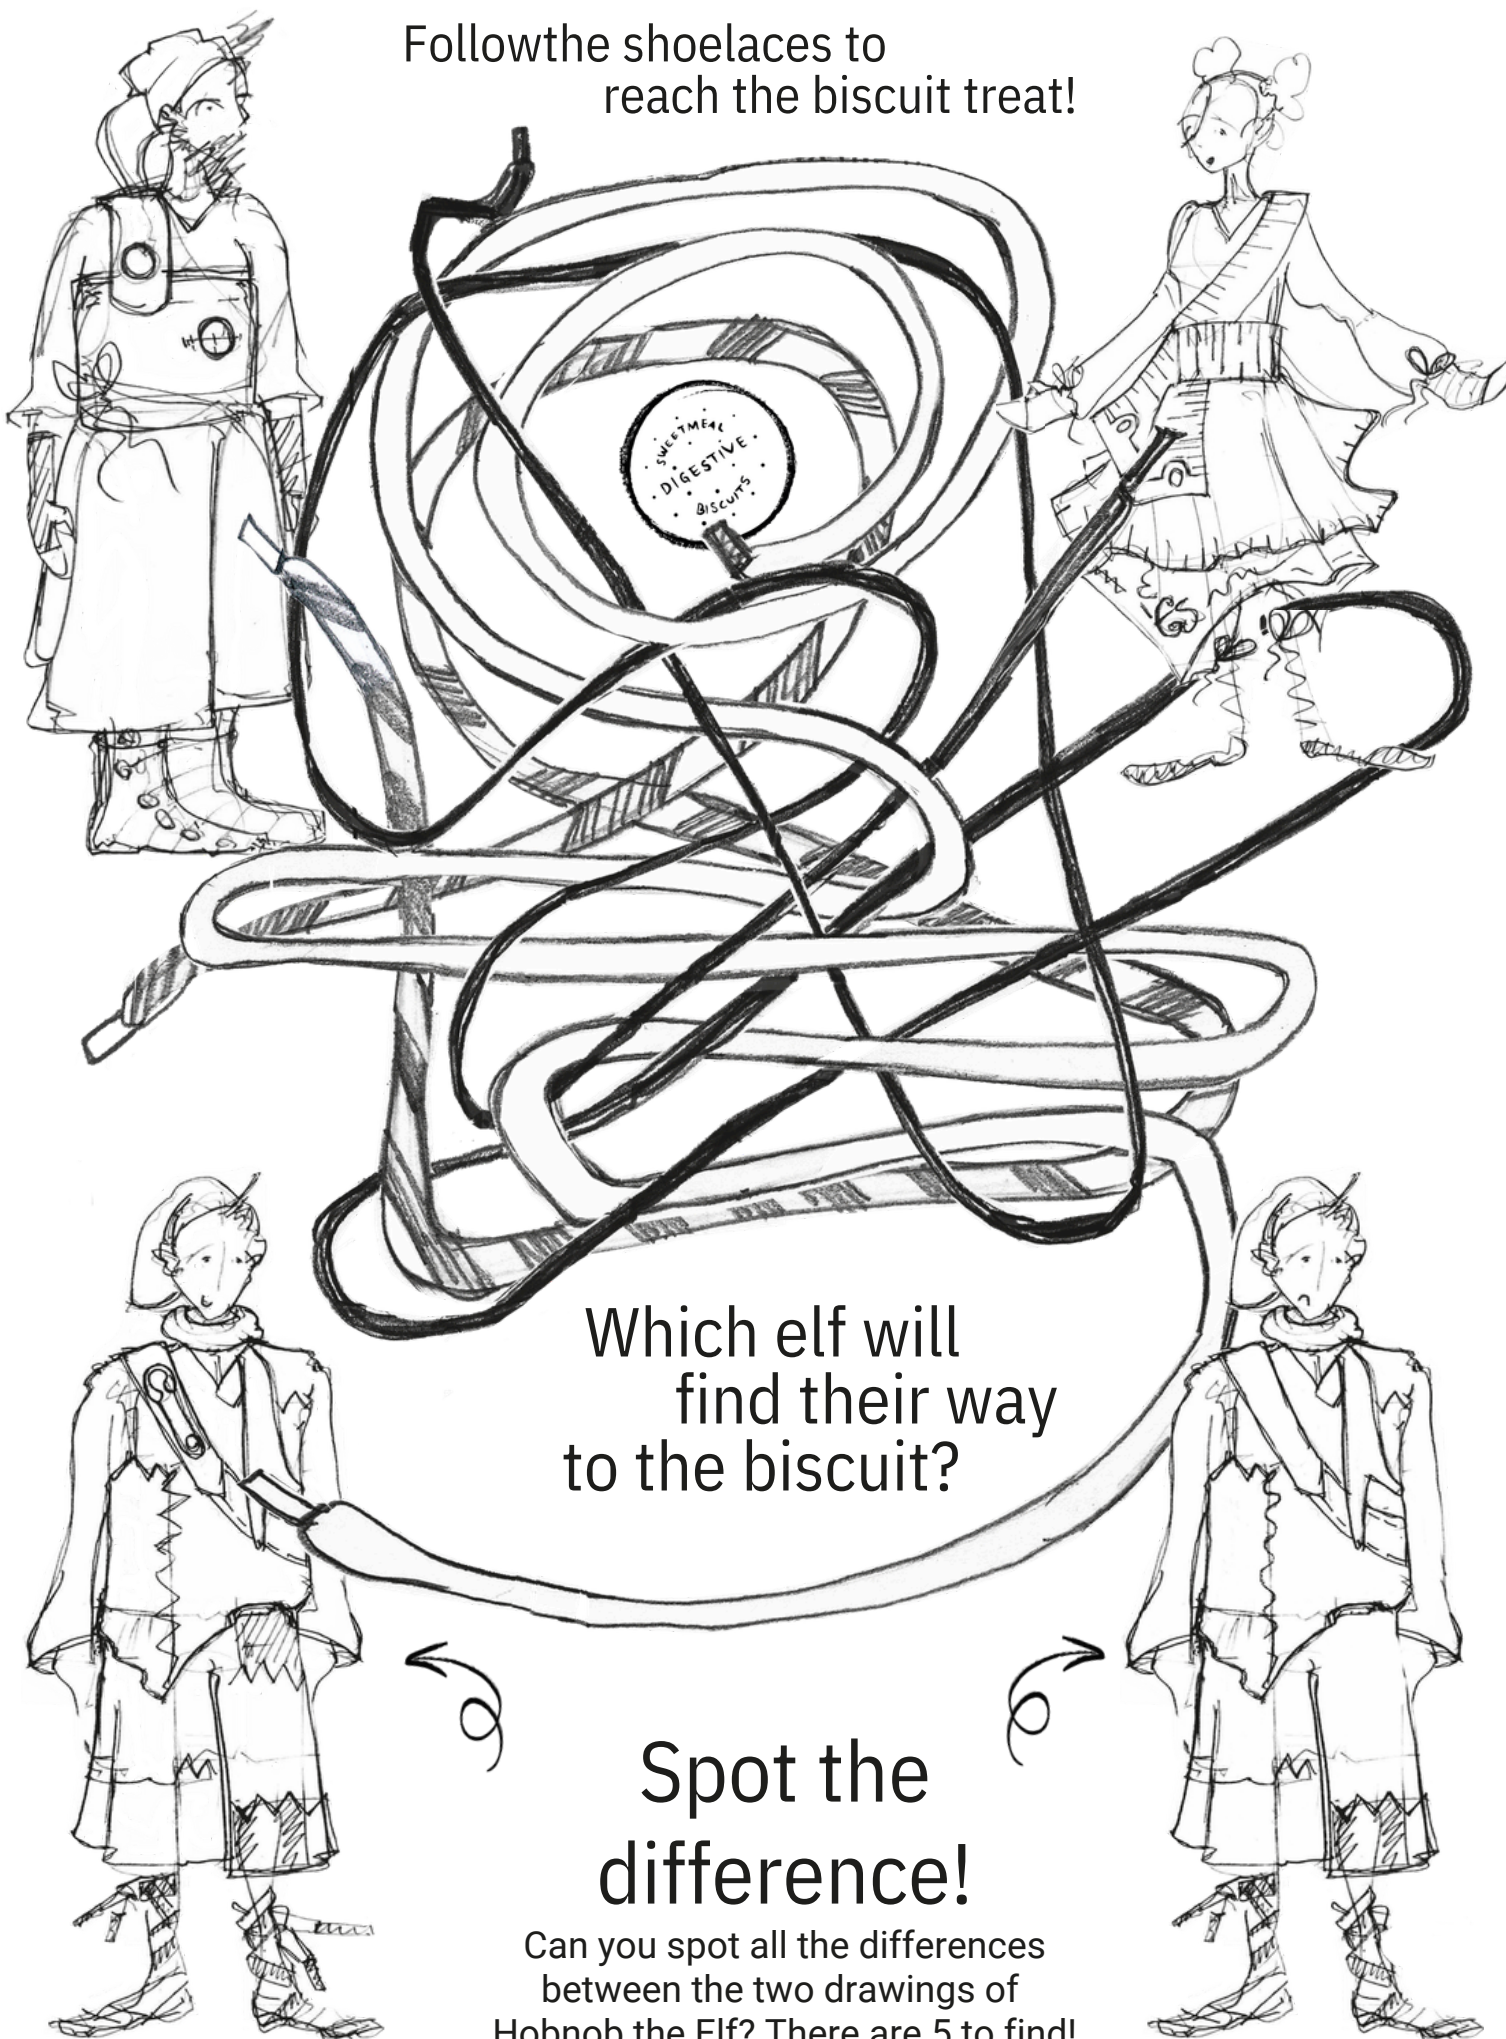

Exeter Northcott Theatre and PaddleBoat Theatre Company are excited to present a brand-new version of the beloved fairytale...

The Elves and the Shoemaker

In the nooks and crannies of the old Shoemaker's shop live the Elves. These cheeky stowaways live off the odds and ends left behind at the end of the day; shoelaces, scraps of leather and biscuit crumbs.

They stay hidden from the big world – that's just how they like it. But this Christmas, all is not well in the Shoe Shop. When it looks like the shop might get closed for good, it's time for the Elves and the Shoemaker to work together and save their home!

Follow the shoelaces to reach the biscuit treat!

Which elf will find their way to the biscuit?

Spot the difference!

Can you spot all the differences between the two drawings of Hobnob the Elf? There are 5 to find!

Elf Words!

The Elves sometimes use their own special words for things, like...

Outy-Bouty – an elf midnight mission into the shop

Cling-a-ling – the shop bell

Biggun – a human

Scribble Stick – a pencil

Thumbkin – a thimble

Have a go at making up your own elf words for your favourite things! Why not start with these?

A sock

A shoelace

A hammer

Design your own shoe here!

What colour leather will you choose?

Will it have a buckle or laces?

Would you wear your shoe in summer or winter?